ORDER FOR PREPARATION OF JURY INSTRUCTIONS

12 All proposed jury instructions are required to be filed and served by Monday, July 3, 2017.

13 Jury instructions are to be submitted in the following format:

15 (a) The parties shall jointly submit one set of agreed upon instructions. To 16 accomplish this, the parties shall serve their proposed instructions on each other two (2) weeks prior to the trial. The parties shall then meet, confer, and submit to the Court one complete set of agreed instructions.

17 (b) If the parties cannot agree upon one complete set of instructions, they shall 18 submit one set of those instructions that have been agreed upon, and each party shall submit a supplemental set of instructions which are not agreed upon.

19 (c) These joint instructions and supplemental instructions shall be filed five (5)
20 days prior to the trial. Each party shall then file, two (2) days before trial, any objections 21 to the non-agreed upon instructions proposed by the other party. All objections shall be in writing and shall set forth the proposed instruction objected to in its entirety. The 22 objection should then specifically set forth the objectionable material in the proposed instruction. The objection shall contain citation to authority explaining why the 23 instruction is improper and a concise statement of argument concerning the instruction.
Where applicable, the objecting party shall submit an alternative instruction.

24 (d) The parties shall submit the proposed joint set of instructions and proposed supplemental instructions in the following format:

25 (i) there must be two (2) copies of each instruction;

26 (ii) the first copy shall indicate the number of the proposed instruction
27 and the authority supporting each instruction; and 28

1 (iii) the second copy shall contain only the proposed instruction – there
2 should be no other marks or writings on the second copy except for the word “Instruction #_____” in the bottom margin.

3 (e) On the day of trial, the parties may submit a concise argument supporting the 4 appropriateness of each party’s proposed instructions to which the other party objected.

5 (f) All instructions should be short, concise, understandable, and neutral
6 statements of law. Argumentative or formal instructions are improper, will not be given, and should not be submitted.

7 (g) Parties should also note that any modifications of instructions from statutory 8 authority, Devitt and Blackmar, Ninth Circuit Manual of Model Jury Instructions, or any other form instructions, must specifically state the modification made to the original form instruction and the authority supporting the modification.

9 (h) Failure to comply with any of the above instructions may subject the 10 noncomplying party and/or counsel to sanctions.

11 (i) Using WordPerfect or Word software, counsel shall submit to the Court
12 proposed jury instructions without citations: one document containing the joint jury
13 instructions, one document for the plaintiffs’ proposed instructions, and one document for the defendants’ proposed instructions. Proposed jury instructions shall be submitted via email and addressed to paris\_rich@nvd.uscourts.gov.

14 The Court further orders the Clerk to serve copies of this Order on all parties.

15 The date of the Clerk's file mark shall constitute the date of this Order.
